

Spanky's Revenge – My Photos

woody is o.k. for now, but that won't last until the spirit of spanky has been appeased.

here are our latest demands:

1. The band must sing 'in the jungle' in the style of the lion king.
2. The spanky memorial page must forever remain on freebecome.com
3. Each show let least through April must contain a moment of silence in memory of spanky, concluded with the acknowledgement that he could never be replaced by some 'cousin' wannabe.
4. A picture of the band members will be favorably showcased on the free beer website, with proclamations of love for them from sewey.

If these demands are not met before the day of the next gig, terrible things (or at least not-so-good things) will happen.

An acknowledgement to our supreme controller, sometime during the next gig, he must don a pirate hat and claim: "aye matey", I love the little holes in them cheeks, we'll be watching!

mercifully,
